

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

YOUR VISION LLC

Effective Date: October 23, 2026

1. Introduction

These Terms and Conditions govern services provided by Your Vision LLC ("Your Vision," "Company," "we," "us," or "our"). By engaging our services, submitting an inquiry that leads to a service engagement, or making a payment toward a project, you ("Client," "you," or "your") agree to the applicable terms outlined below.

These Terms apply to services provided through our website and other business channels. Project-specific proposals, invoices, and signed agreements may establish additional requirements or supersede these general Terms for the specific project.

2. Services

Your Vision LLC provides creative, branding, and media services, including but not limited to:

- Branding and visual identity development
- Logo design and brand assets
- Website design and development
- Graphic design and promotional materials
- Photography, including headshots, graduation, prom and formal portraits, brand photography, and event photography
- Videography, promotional video production, interviews, and event recap videos
- Media production and visual storytelling
- Photo booth rentals and related event experiences
- Ongoing creative support, contract work, and monthly retainer services

All services are customized according to the scope agreed upon with the Client. Specific deliverables, timelines, revisions, fees, and project requirements will be outlined in the applicable proposal, invoice, or written agreement.

3. Payments

Payment terms will be established in the applicable invoice, proposal, or written agreement.

- Required deposits and payment schedules will be communicated before work begins.
- Deposits are non-refundable once work has begun, subject to applicable law and any written agreement.
- Final deliverables may be withheld until the agreed balance is paid in full.
- Late or incomplete payments may result in project delays, suspension, or other remedies permitted by the applicable agreement and law.
- Additional work outside the approved scope may require additional payment.

For monthly retainers and ongoing creative partnerships, payment frequency, included services, contract duration, and termination requirements will be specified in the applicable agreement.

4. Refunds, Cancellations, and Rescheduling

Because many of our services involve customized creative work, refunds are not guaranteed.

- Completed work, partially completed work, and delivered files may be non-refundable, subject to applicable law and the terms of the applicable agreement.
- Cancellation, rescheduling, and postponement policies for photography sessions, events, video production, photo booth rentals, and other scheduled services will be specified in the applicable booking agreement or invoice.
- Any applicable cancellation fees, rescheduling fees, or non-refundable booking payments must be communicated in the applicable agreement.

Clients should contact Your Vision as soon as possible if they need to cancel or reschedule a project or session.

5. Client Responsibilities

The Client agrees to:

- Provide accurate, complete, and timely information, content, and feedback.
- Ensure that they have the necessary rights, licenses, and permissions for materials supplied to Your Vision, including images, text, logos, music, and trademarks.
- Review proofs, drafts, and deliverables within the timeframes communicated.
- Respond to requests for information or approval in a reasonable timeframe.
- Communicate project requirements, preferences, and relevant restrictions before work begins.
- Obtain any necessary permissions from individuals or venues when those responsibilities are assigned to the Client in the applicable agreement.

Your Vision is not responsible for delays caused by missing materials, delayed approvals, or a lack of Client communication.

6. Revisions and Scope Changes

The number of revisions included in a project will be stated in the applicable proposal, package description, or written agreement.

Requests beyond the included revisions or approved project scope may result in additional fees and extended timelines. New deliverables, substantial design changes, additional shooting time, or changes requested after approval may be treated as additional work.

Your Vision will communicate any applicable additional costs before proceeding with out-of-scope work.

7. Photography, Videography, and Event Services

Photography, videography, and event services are provided according to the scope and schedule agreed upon with the Client.

- The Client is responsible for communicating session details, event schedules, locations, and special requests in advance.
- Specific coverage durations, deliverable quantities, editing, turnaround times, and delivery formats will be outlined in the applicable agreement.
- Final photographs and videos are subject to the editing and production process described in the agreed scope.
- Raw images, unedited footage, and project source files are not included unless expressly stated in writing.
- Your Vision cannot guarantee specific photographic conditions, outcomes, or footage when circumstances outside its reasonable control affect production.

For photo booth rentals, setup, operating hours, attendant services, equipment, backdrops, sharing features, venue requirements, and other rental details will be specified in the applicable booking agreement.

8. Logo Design, Fonts, and Creative Assets

Logo and design deliverables will be provided in the formats specified in the applicable agreement.

- Common formats may include PNG, JPG, PDF, or SVG, depending on the project scope.
- Editable source files are included only when expressly stated in writing.
- Font files are not included unless expressly agreed upon.
- Font licensing rights are not transferred to the Client unless separately licensed or otherwise expressly agreed in writing.
- Clients are responsible for obtaining any additional font, stock image, software, or third-party asset licenses needed for their intended use, unless the applicable agreement states otherwise.

9. Ownership and Usage Rights

Unless otherwise specified in a written agreement, ownership and usage rights are governed by the following terms.

Upon full payment, the Client receives the rights to use the final deliverables as outlined in the applicable agreement.

Your Vision retains ownership of its pre-existing materials, methods, templates, tools, and other resources used in creating deliverables. Editable source files and working files are provided only when included in the agreed scope.

Your Vision may display completed work in its portfolio, website, social media, and promotional materials unless a different arrangement is agreed upon in writing and subject to applicable privacy, publicity, and consent requirements.

For photography and videography involving identifiable individuals, the parties will follow any applicable model releases, event permissions, confidentiality requirements, and written usage restrictions. Your Vision will not rely on this general portfolio provision as a substitute for any consent or release required by law.

10. Website Design and Development

Website services include the design, development, and setup expressly described in the applicable agreement.

Unless expressly included in writing, website projects do not include ongoing maintenance, future updates, hosting fees, domain registration, premium applications, third-party subscriptions, or additional development after project completion.

The Client is responsible for ongoing platform fees, domain renewals, third-party subscriptions, and account access or credentials assigned to the Client.

Additional changes beyond the approved scope may incur additional fees. Search engine optimization, website performance, search rankings, traffic, and business results are not guaranteed.

11. Third-Party Platforms and Tools

Projects may use third-party platforms, software, hosting providers, payment processors, stock resources, or other services.

Your Vision is not responsible for third-party outages, interruptions, policy changes, price changes, subscription restrictions, or other issues outside its reasonable control.

Clients are responsible for third-party fees and for complying with the terms of services they independently use or subscribe to.

12. Intellectual Property and Legal Compliance

The Client represents that materials supplied to Your Vision are owned by the Client or are properly licensed for the intended use.

The Client is responsible for ensuring that supplied content does not unlawfully infringe another party's copyright, trademark, privacy, publicity, or other rights.

Your Vision is not responsible for disputes arising from materials supplied by the Client or uses outside the rights granted under the applicable agreement.

Clients should seek independent legal advice regarding trademark registration, copyright protection, licensing, and other legal matters when needed. Creative services do not constitute legal advice.

13. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Your Vision LLC will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages, including loss of profits, revenue, or business opportunities arising from the use of our services.

Your Vision is not responsible for failures or errors caused by third-party services or circumstances outside its reasonable control.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability that cannot legally be excluded or limited under applicable law.

14. Changes to These Terms

Your Vision LLC may update these Terms from time to time. The revised version will be posted on this website with an updated effective date.

Changes will apply prospectively as permitted by law. Existing signed agreements will continue to be governed by their terms unless the parties agree otherwise or applicable law requires a different result.

15. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Alabama, without regard to conflict-of-law principles, except where applicable law requires otherwise.
